Dear Nelly,

I'm sitting in the garden. I'm writing now because I can't play in the house.

My father is sleeping on the sofa. My mother is in the kitchen, she is baking a cake (it's her favourite kitchen activity). My brother João is dancing in the garage, he is thirteen, and my grandmother is listening to her favourite music – opera.

I could phone a friend or two, but at this time of the day I'm sure they are all skateboarding in the park. I sometimes go with them, but I usually fall...

My American friend Dora who lives next door is working on her collection (that stupid stamp collection). Her two brothers are playing basketball. I don't like it, so I am all alone. I'm feeling miserable...

Ana
